Lunch Today: Irish Nachos, Fruit, Vegetable, Milk

- If you are interested in picking up IMPACT hours here are some upcoming events
 - Thursday December 4th at 5:30 at the city garage- Putting sand and candles in milk jugs to build Christmas luminaries for the Christmas walk.
 - Friday the 5th at 3:30 -light the luminaries and put them out on the bike path.
 - Saturday the 6th 9-11 -pick up the luminaries and put them away.
 - Please sign up on the website or contact Mrs. Pepper with your availability.
- Teamwork makes our school a community where everyone feels safe and supported—just like Asset 10 reminds us. Whether you're helping a classmate, cheering on your team, or donating to the food drive, every act of teamwork matters. We really are Better Together! Let's finish strong! Food drop off for Friday is bar soaps and shampoos. Food drop off is as follows:
 - Freshmen - 216 Items | Mrs. Pepper's Room
 - Sophomores - 222 Items | Mrs. Mussman's Room
 - Juniors - 177 items | Mrs. Pestka's Room
 - Seniors - 201 items | Mr. Ankrom's Room
- Attention Fulton High! Big update on our food drive competition—our juniors started the day at zero yesterday, but they've come charging forward and now hold the lead with 58% of their goal!
 - 2nd Place: Sophomores with 42% of their goal.
 - 3rd Place: Seniors with 23% of their goal
 - Last Place: Freshmen with 22% of their goal
- Reminder - classes that meet their goal will earn cookies. The winning class gets a pizza party with pizzas donated from Casey's! We've collected 289 total items - 35% of our FHS goal. Let's keep the momentum rolling, support the boat, and see which class will rise to the top by the end of the week!
