- Yesterday we started talking about integrity—doing the right thing, even when no one is watching. Today's reminder: integrity shows up in the small moments. Turning in your own work. Owning your mistakes. Being honest with your friends and teachers. Leadership doesn't always look loud or dramatic. Sometimes it looks like quietly choosing what's right when it would be easier not to. Be someone others can count on. That's what it means to be leadworthy.
