Breakfast Tomorrow: Scrambled eggs, wheat toast, diced pears, apple juice, milk

- Students, the year is coming to an end. It's time to start finding your padlocks to your lockers, or come to the office and pay $6 for a replacement. Lunch accounts and book fees need to be paid off. Seniors this needs to be done before graduation so you can walk across the stage.
- Good luck to the Steamer Bass Fishing Team as they go compete at State tomorrow, they will be leaving at 11. Good luck to Lady Steamer Track as they leave to compete at State tomorrow, release at 12:30. Good luck to Steamer Softball as they travel to Biggsville today to start their Regionals, please release them at 1. Good luck to Steamer Baseball today as they start their Regionals at home, game time 6:00.
- Anyone interested in playing Girl's Basketball please stop by the office to get a summer schedule.
- Clinton County (at the Admin building) has a large construction project coming up. They are looking for temporary employees who are 18 or older, but they do not have to be graduated. They should have experience with power tools and/or construction projects. There will also likely be some clean-up as part of the role. The pay is $13.50/hour and they will work 10-20 hours per week. The main duty is moving office equipment (desks, chairs, file cabinets and other equipment around so the construction project work can be done). Interested candidates should apply online.
