Teacher Preparation Academy

TEACHING IS...

- ▶ Shaping the minds of future generations
- ▶ Imparting knowledge and skills
- ▶ Assessing students' progress and goals
- ▶ Focusing on subjects you're passionate about

CAREERS IN EDUCATION

Teacher

Create lesson plans and tests in order to educate students on specific subjects depending on the age and skill of the students. Concentrations for teaching occupations include special education, early childhood education, or secondary education.

Teaching Assistant

Work with, or under, the guidance of a licensed teacher. They provide support and feedback to teachers and help monitor the students' progress.

Substitute Teacher

Act as temporary replacements when regular classroom teachers have to call in sick or take personal days. They typically use the lesson plans established by the schoolteacher, although some may have a say in the classes or grade levels they agree to cover in some schools and districts.

Education Administration

Accountable for all administrative duties at a school, including budgets, schedules, disciplinary actions, and event planning. Having keen attention to detail, excellent organization, and a passion for connecting with students, as well as teachers, are important skills.

TEACHING CAREERS PROVIDE...

- ▶ Job security
- ▶ Reasonable work hours with long summer vacations
- ▶ Lifelong learning
- ▶ High job satisfaction

School Counselor

Help students socially, academically, and emotionally, as well as guide them along their path to college or into the workforce.

School Librarian

Support students, find information, and conduct research. Librarians are responsible for maintaining databases, organizing physical library materials, and planning programs for literacy efforts.

School Social Work

Work with teachers and school administrators to identify behavior issues in students that might lead to aggressive behavior, bullying, or absences. They then work with the students and their families to develop strategies to improve students' academic performance and social development.

English as a Second Language

Teach the English language to students who are not fluent, as well as help them to better understand the culture of their new environment.

College Professor

Responsible for teaching the subject area in which they are trained. A professor must create tests, assignments, and projects that allow students to demonstrate knowledge in the given subject area and provide grades for each.
